

First Lady Sparina R. Williams

First Lady, Evangelist Sparina R. Williams was born in Jackson, Mississippi, to Vora M. Webb and Wesley Lee Webb. She graduated from Lanier High School. Upon graduation, she served in the Armed Forces for 10 successful years. She is a retiree of the Department of Defense, after serving for 17 years. She holds a Bachelor of Religious Arts in Biblical Studies.

First Lady Williams received Christ in her life on July 5, 1984 while attending Aberdeen Proving Ground Gospel Service in Maryland, where she served faithfully a choir member.

She has served in numerous positions in the church; Youth Department President, Choir member, Women's Department President and First Lady of Strong Tower Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Stuttgart, West Germany, Youth Department President, Choir member and Women President, Chapel Five Gospel Service, Fort Polk Louisiana, Sunday School Teacher and Women Department President, Kingdom Builders Church of God in Christ, Hanover Maryland; YWCC President, Full Gospel Tabernacle Church of God in Christ Hinesville, Georgia; Historic First Jurisdiction of Southern Georgia, State Pastor's and Minister's Wives President and State Registrar, and District Chairlady of the Headquarters District, Youth Department and Women's Department President and the First Lady of Gospel Tabernacle Church of God in Christ in Homerville, Georgia.

She also served as the State Women's Department Workshop Coordinator and District Missionary of the Historic Lumber City District. She currently serves as the State Supervisor of Women for the Historic First Jurisdiction of Southern Georgia, COGIC.

Lady Williams loves God, her family and the work of the ministry.